

INTERNSHIP OFFER LETTER

Date: 16/02/2026

To,
Elango N

We are pleased to inform you that you have been selected to join HDSOFT Systems as an Intern.

This internship will commence on 16th February 2026 and will be valid until 15th May 2026. During this period, you will undergo practical training and gain hands-on exposure to Software Development and related activities under the guidance of our technical team.

This internship is offered as part of our learning and skill development program. The objective of this internship is to enhance your technical knowledge, professional skills, and real-world industry exposure.

You are expected to:

- Maintain regular attendance and discipline during the internship period
- Follow company policies and guidelines
- Complete tasks and assignments assigned by your reporting team
- Maintain confidentiality of company information

Please note that this internship is purely for training and learning purposes. Successful completion of the internship does not guarantee permanent employment; however, performance during the internship may be considered for future opportunities, subject to company requirements.

We wish you a successful learning experience with us and look forward to your contribution during the internship period.
